++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Remaining dry for the bank holiday weekend.

Today:
A largely dry day, with some patchy cloud perhaps thick enough in the east for the odd spot of rain. During afternoon, sunny spells becoming more widespread and feeling pleasantly warm in the sunshine with light winds. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Tonight:
Most of the cloud will clear as we move into the evening leaving a fine end to the day. Remaining largely clear overnight making it feel cool. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Saturday:
A largely clear start but cloud pushing in from the east as we move into the afternoon, but most will clear in the evening. Remaining dry and feeling warm. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Remaining dry and fine with sunny spells and variable amounts of cloud through the period. Feeling warm by day, but cool overnight.
